

Cut lengths of tin foil, and fold them in 1/3's for strength. Each strip should be long enough to go around a child's head.

Make tin foil loops, and attach them to the long strips of foil using tape or glue.

Have the children decorate their crowns with markers, glitter glue and/or stickers.

Wrap each child's decorated crown around his head, and tape or staple the two ends together.